SAINTS OF THE WEEK
Saint Benedict
11 July
Abbot and Patron of Europe

Born in Norcia in Umbria about the year 480.

After studying at Rome, he led a life of solitude in Subiaco and disciples gathered around him. He then went to Monte Cassino.

Here he founded a well known Monastery and wrote his Rule, as a result of which, he has been known as the father of Monasticism in the West.

He died on 21 March 547, but from the Eighth Century he has also been venerated on 11 July, the Feast Day of Saint Benedict – Patron of Europe

Saint Henry
13 July
Born in Bavaria in the year 973. He succeeded his father as Duke of Bavaria and was later elected as Holy Roman Emperor.

He was outstanding in his reforms in the Church and for his encouragement of missionary activity.

He set up many dioceses and founded monasteries.
He died in the year 1024 and was canonized by Eugene III in 1146.

Saint Camillus
14 July
Saint Camillus was a soldier, who after his conversion to religious life, dedicated himself to looking after the sick. After being ordained Priest he continued his work, setting up hospitals.
He is the Patron Saint of Nurses and the Sick. He died in 614.

COMMUNION OF THE SICK

Priest: Let us pray for our Sick as our Eucharistic Ministers are sent out to give them the Sacrament of Christ's Body.

ALL: May this Sacrament unite them with Christ and his Church and give them consolation and peace.

Priest: Ministers, in the name of the Church gathered here, take the Body of the Lord to the Sick of this Parish.
