CATENIAN CHARITY

The Teenage Cancer trust specialises in providing emotional, physical and practical support for young people who are undergoing treatment for cancer.

They are building units in Liverpool and Clatterbridge.

Phil and Angela Roberts are walking from Parbold to Prestatyn (70 Miles) on 21 – 26 February to raise money for the charity and will be at the back of Church this weekend.

There is no truth in the rumour that they will walk across Liverpool Bay (is their faith not strong enough?) They will take the ferry across the Mersey and a bridge over the Dee!

If anyone would like to help with the format of the Service, perhaps a couple of minutes reflection on a particular Station, a prayer or music, you will be welcome.

You will not be required to walk or stand during the service, just make it a time of restful prayer. Contact Peter Madden
☎01257 464229
