DEANERY SYNOD UPDATE Our parish is part of the West Lancashire Deanery and parish priests and parish representatives from each parish in the Deanery are now established and meeting quarterly with the aim of supporting Parish Priests and enhancing the Catholic life of parishioners by working more closely together. In November, some members of the Deanery Synod also attended the Archdiocesan Synod in Liverpool and feedback from that is expected shortly. Within the Deanery itself, smaller clusters of parishes have been formed by the Archdiocese into families of parishes and our family of parishes encompasses St John the Evangelist Burscough, Our Lady and All Saints Parbold and St Joseph Wrightington. Local discussions are focusing on practical ways that local parishes can work. Events and activities in each parish are to be collated so that initiatives that require a certain level of support have a greater chance of going ahead. For example, a recent Walsingham pilgrimage from St Anne's in Ormskirk was cancelled due to insufficient numbers to make it economic but at a Deanery level it may have had sufficient interest to go ahead. There is an embryonic idea for a Novena visiting all the churches of the Deanery over 9 days in the summer. What do you think of that, and do you have any suggestions of your own? Contact Our Lady and All Saints parish rep: Adrian Owens at adrian@adrianowens.com or 464813.

CONFIRMATIONS Any young person who is in Year 8 or above, who wishes to be confirmed this year can register for confirmation preparation at www.liverpoolcalled.co.uk before 15th March. Preparation will take place both in school and in the parish.
